LRCR Renovation Updates

Excitement abounds as LRCR's BIG FUTURE revs up.

The renovation is in full swing and team members will certainly see activity around the resort as Clark Construction Company and their sub-contractors work to create an elegantly casual resort experience for our guests.

The Spa construction has begun. The work will occur Monday – Thursday between the hours of 7a – 5p. We all know construction can be noisy and perhaps inconvenient. Please assure our valued guests that this brief interruption is creating an elegant Spa that will offer high-end amenities for them to enjoy. Imagine a day filled with pampering and healthy benefits re-ished in a relaxing atmosphere! A full-service hair salon with manicure options is included in the Spa, as well as treatment rooms and deluxe amenities. There will be an indoor and an outdoor pool, as well as saunas and hot tubs. The construction is scheduled for completion in early December 2015. Just in time for our guests to enjoy a full service Spa Experience for the Christmas Season!

Construction on the area where the 2020 room was located will render a new women's restroom to service the floor and new Sports Bar. This construction begins Monday, June 29 and is scheduled to conclude late August of this year. Again, please assure our valued guests that we are working to create an elegantly casual resort experience for them to enjoy and we ask that they 'pardon our dust' as we do our best to make our resort the best that Michigan has to offer!

July 6 will see construction on the current popcorn / All-Star Beef area. This area is being transformed into accessible Group Sales offices to better serve our guests. The popcorn area will be temporarily relocated to the far wall, by the Rolling Stones machine, next to the Willows. Please assure our guests they can munch on delicious popcorn at the temporary location and find cold refreshing beverages at the service station nearby.

Eileen Duffin, Director of Marketing, has some suggestions for communicating the excitement to our guests, during what may be a confusing time:

Here's a few suggestions on what you can tell them:

- We are refreshing our resort!
- We are adding a new spa and pool to our hotel !
- We are adding a sports bar to our resort!
- We are making improvements to all our restaurants!
- We are making good on our promise of BIG Fun!

Wisdom..."it does not require many words to speak the truth."

Chief Joseph, Nez Perce

The truth shall set you free. This is the truth. When we speak the Truth, we do not need to be defensive. Truth needs no defense. When we speak the Truth, we do not need to attack because Truth cannot be attacked. It is so easy to want to manipulate or to be deceitful or dishonest. My head tells me I can get away with doing these things, after all everybody does it.

My Creator, today let me know Truth. Let me live Truth. Let me risk the Truth. Let me make the Truth sweet. Help me to make my word good. Let Your spirit and intent be added to by words. Let My thoughts be Truth.

INDIAN VILLAGE CAMP 2015

Last 2015 session - August 7-9

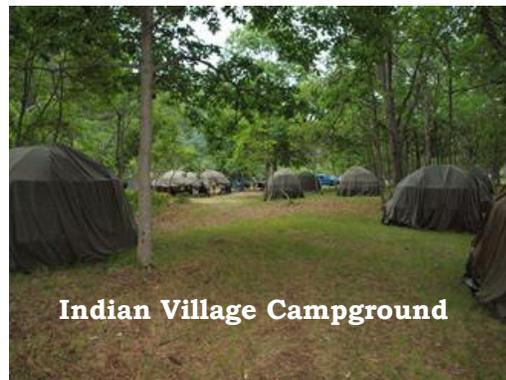

Three Days and Two Nights: "Cultural Teachings and Wilderness Living Immersion Camp"

All Tribes are Welcome!

Between meals are organized activities. There are hardly ever any down times when there is not a scheduled activity. Scheduled activities are secondary to group dynamics and the situational need for talking circles, conflict resolution or personal human situations that always occur without planning. Talking Circle Communication takes precedent over the need to present crafts or disseminate educational information. All activities have several layers of importance, the skill itself, the networking of the group through peer interaction, the philosophy of the activity, and how it applies to the real world and to their real lives.

ELIGIBILITY: Male and Female: Ages 12-17

Parent or Guardian must apply for the youth participant to be approved to attend the camp. Application forms are available from the Peace-making Probation Department of the Little River Band of Ottawa Indians. This is a rustic wilderness camp. Youth must be physically able to participate in normal camping type activities and be in good health. Exceptions for disabilities or injuries can be made with approval. Violent or sex offender youth are prohibited from attending this camp for the safety of other participants.

Indian Village Campground

The camp is designed for: Tribal Member Youth, Tribal Descendants and Traditionally Recognized Non-Members (Members of the family who are directly related to tribal member/s, such as by marriage, adoption, or other justifiable circumstance, or are a recognized part of a tribal community even if not by blood, etc.) We also extend the eligibility to include descendants and members from other tribes.

ACTIVITIES THAT ARE PRESENTED INCLUDE

FIRE: Bow Drill Fire-making, Demonstrations of alternate methods of Fire-making such as flint and steel and using magnesium shavings, using a lens to make fire, piston fire, fire tinder like birch bark and cedar bark, collecting proper kinds of wood, how to maintain a fire, different uses of a fire such as utility fire and sacred fire. All participants are asked to collect firewood and at different times to be a fire-keeper.

CLAY: Different clay projects include pinch and coil pottery, animal fetishes, beads, amulets or wall hangings, Traditional pottery projects are pit fired to harden clay.

BEADWORK: Different types of beadwork projects are presented, lazy stitch and appliqué. Sometimes beadwork is used to decorate other projects.

2015 IVC Session #1

We had fourteen youth attend the July 10-12 Indian Village Camp. Special Guest Paul Raphael taught bird language and wilderness awareness. Youth made drums from deer rawhide, pounded six inch copper bowls, threw the atlatl, picked plants and made herbal salve, did beadwork and necklaces, had numerous teaching and talking circles where they learned about culture and solved their problems by communicating with the talking stick. The participants hauled their own water, cooked their own food over the fire and slept in wigwams covered with canvas tarps. Trained and experienced staff were present during the entire camp, which ended with a travelling song and a blessing on all who participated.

Iron Works Café—Manistee

The Iron Works Café in Manistee has opened after a lot of effort by local volunteers and organizations. (If the stools look familiar it's because they used to sit in front of Slot Machines at the Little River Casino and were donated by property disposal). The Café is located in the Old Iron Works on East River and offers excellent food that is good for you!

Iron Works Café

The project is training people to the restaurateur profession. They also use locally grown produce and support local folks who need a hand.
