v.

Defendant
-----------

Child support shall abate by 50% during the times the non-custodial parent has parenting time for six (6) or more consecutive overnight periods, for that week.

Should there be work related child-care expenses the Plaintiff shall pay ____% and the Defendant pay ____% of said expenses.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED:

Payer's support obligation shall continue until each child attains the age of eighteen years or until the child graduates from high school, or if the child is regularly attending high school on a full-time basis with a reasonable expectation of completing sufficient credits to graduate from high school while residing on a full-time basis with the payee of support or at an institution, but in no case after the child reaches 19 years and 6 months of age, whichever is later or until further Order of the Court.

The agreed upon figure between the parties is within the child support guideline figure.

HEALTH CARE:

Both parties shall provide health care insurance for the child/children if it is available at a reasonable cost as a benefit of employment or as an option for dependents on a current health insurance policy. If insurance is obtained, the party obtaining such insurance shall immediately provide the other party with useable proof of such insurance. The parties, may, after agreement, make arrangements to avoid duplicate insurance coverage for the child/children. Unless there is a prior Order or agreement, it shall be presumed that the parties shall pay on a prorated basis any reasonable uninsured health care costs (Plaintiff: ____% Defendant: ____%) that are incurred on behalf of the minor child, which exceed ordinary household expenditures.
