The Little River Band of Ottawa Indians (LRBOI) Be Da Bin Behavioral Health Department in collaboration with Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) Tribal Training and Technical Assistance (TTA) Center is pleased to invite you to:

LRBOI Gathering of Native Americans (GONA) Wellness and Healing for Our Nation

Discussion Topics

The GONA is a journey of healing and transformation. It is as much about healing the past as it is about building the future. This process involves examining skills, abilities, knowledge, resources, and desires that can be used in some way to help meet the community's overall vision and goals for prevention efforts.

Who Should Attend:

Tribal Leaders, social service staff, health care providers, law enforcement, elders, traditional and faith-based organizations, and other prevention partners to attend the GONA.

Point of Contact:

Dottie Batchelder-Streeter, BS, CADC, CCS-M, CRC-R, CPRM Chemical Dependency Counselor/Acting Supervisor, Be Da Bin Behavioral Health/LRBOI, DorothyBatchelder@lrboi-nsn.gov. 231-398-6741
