Aanii:

I guess I can say "Happy Spring" after it seems winter was refusing to leave.

Little River Band of Ottawa Indians has many "irons in the fire". We also have a newly created Economic Development Corporation (EDC) to handle some of those "irons". The EDC Board consists of seven individuals. Working with Tom St. Dennis and Jeanie Gibson will be Andrew Gentile, Jim Nedeau, Frank Medacco- check signer, Thad Taylor-Secretary, Frank Lewis Jr.- Treasurer, Ron Pete as Vice-Chair and myself as the Chairman. We hope to ensure current economic development projects stay on track and look at other future projects thoroughly.

As you may notice, there are changes to this publication. More is written about the changes to this paper, the website, Rapid River News and our Tribal Facebook page. I think you will be happy with the changes taking place. Access to information should become much easier.

If you attended our Spring Membership Meeting you learned that our Muskegon Casino Project has moved another step closer to becoming a reality. The project is in Washington DC being vetted by the DOI and BIA. It has been a long process of nearly 9 years but I think we are nearing the end of the processes, hopefully within 2 years to approval.

We have also recently purchased the Bear Lake Golf Course and again, more information is contained within this issue. Council approved the purchase in April. The course will be managed by the Little River Casino Resort.

I wish everyone a comfortable springtime. Until next time...

" If you see Senator Hansen, please thank him for his years of continued support for our Muskegon Casino Project!"

Dear Ogema,

Please allow me to reaffirm my continued support for the gaming project of the Little River Band of Ottawa Indians which would be located in Fruitport Township, Muskegon County.

As you know, in 2013, I sincerely appreciated Governor Snyder honoring my request that he permit the USDOT to begin their review of the LRBOI's Fee to Trust application for this gaming facility to be built. Since the Section 9 Compact Waiver Letter had allowed the Tribe to file the initial application, I have been eagerly anticipating the outcome of the USDOT's Two-Part Determination Process. I remain hopeful the Secretary of Interior's decision is positive.

I have always been encouraged by the amount of local support for this project, the significant economic development opportunities which would be realized along with the positive impact this will have on Muskegon County and the surrounding region.

I continue to commend the Tribe's willingness to partner in the renewed growth of Muskegon County by investing in its future. Thank you for your continued commitment and diligent efforts on behalf of this region of Michigan. I look forward to partnering with you and others to make this economic development project a reality.

Sincerely,

Geoff Hansen
State Senator

Notice: Regarding The Stop Signs on Tribal Roads

Back in 2016, the Tribal Council authorized the installation of Stop Signs on Tribal Roads that displayed the word “Stop” in two languages: English and Anishinaabemowin. The Anishinaabemowin equivalent word is “Ngaabzan.” The cost for the manufacture and installation of the signs was funded by the Tribe.

Last year (2017), the Tribe was informed by BIA Roads Program personnel that Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) regulations prohibited “secondary legends or languages” on Stop Sign faces. Essentially this meant that our new Stop Signs were not in compliance with FHWA regulations. We were advised to remove the new Stop Signs and replace them with the original signs that just contained the word “Stop.” Failure to comply could jeopardize our ability to receive federal (FHWA) roads funding in the future, as the Tribe would be deemed to be out of compliance with FHWA regulations.

When informed of this, our Tribal Council felt very strongly that we should appeal this decision to a higher authority. So, on August 29, 2017, Speaker Joe Riley sent a letter, on behalf of Tribal Council, to both the BIA Department of Transportation and the Federal Highway Administration requesting an exception to the federal regulations that prohibit the use of bilingual signs.

The Director of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Bryan Rice, did respond to Speaker Riley in a letter dated January 10, 2018. However, we did not receive the letter until April 2018. In his letter, Director Rice politely informed the Tribe that the BIA is legally required to comply with the federal regulations, and that he was not aware of any exceptions being granted by the FHWA.

In light of the written response from the BIA, the Tribal Council has reluctantly decided to replace the bilingual Stop Signs with the original Stop Signs. However, the Tribe is continuing to explore other ways to utilize the bilingual Stop Signs while still remaining in compliance with FHWA regulations. We will provide an update as soon as more information becomes available.

The U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ) National Indian Country Training Initiative (NICTI), together with the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), held a Tribal Action Plan (TAP) Development Workshop at the National Advocacy Center in Columbia, South Carolina from May 7th through May 10th. The LRBOI was selected by the DOJ to attend this workshop. Jamie Friedel (Tribal Council), Ron Wittenberg (Tribal Council), Jason Cross, MSW (Family Services) and Sergeant Vance Bates (Public Safety) were in attendance.

The Tribal Action Plan Training Initiative was established in direct response to the Tribal Law and Order Act of 2010. TAPs support the principle of tribal self-determination and provide tribes the opportunity to take a proactive role in the fight against alcohol and substance misuse in their communities. In the near future we will be reaching out to other Tribal Departments as well as the community to help us create the (TCC) Tribal Coordinating Committee. A preliminary Vision statement was developed at the training and is as follows "The LRBOI TAP is committed to taking a 360 degree approach to wellness by bringing together the past, present and future".

The preliminary Mission statement is to "Build a Community of Balance, Harmony, Growth and Inclusiveness". With the support of the Tribal Ogema and Tribal Council we will be taking the first steps to build a strategic plan that includes strong awareness and support to help our community win the fight against these killers.

Food Distribution Program (FDPIR) was created by Congress in 1977 Food Stamp Act as an alternative to the Food Stamp Program for Indian Reservations. The program offers commodity to low income Native American households. No household may participate in both the Commodity Food Program and Snap Program, but eligible households can switch from one program to the other at the end of each month. Eligibility and participation for FDPIR are based on application and certification requiring tribal status, income and resources qualification, in determining who is eligible for the program. We are federally funded by the USDA and they set the regulations and guidelines for the Food Distribution Program.

Corey Jerome and Josh Beaulaurier taking ultra-sound images to determine the sex of the sturgeon

April, 2018 -

The LRBOI Natural Resources Department staff, led by Corey Jerome - Sturgeon Biologist, have recaptured a Lake Sturgeon from Manistee Lake that was raised and released in 2008 from our sturgeon Streamside Rearing Facility at Rainbow Bend on the Manistee River. This is the first released sturgeon that has been documented returning into the Manistee River system from our rearing facility and is thought to be on its way up the Manistee River to spawn this spring. Corey Jerome was able to confirm the identity of this sturgeon by using the unique identification number (484C5A6F39) scanned from the PIT-Tag in the fish, this tag was implanted into this sturgeon before its release in 2008. The sturgeon was released on September 20, 2008 and was 7.3 in., 0.05 lbs. and is now 10 years old and 45.27 in., 28 lbs. To our knowledge this is the first documented lake sturgeon from a Streamside Rearing Facility to return to its natal stream within the Great Lakes. Corey Jerome began in the spring of 2017, and has continued in 2018 to look for adult lake sturgeon returning to the Manistee River from our Streamside Rearing Facility. It is our plan to continue these efforts to look for returning sturgeon in the Manistee River that have been released from our Streamside Rearing Facility to evaluate the success of our efforts.

We would like to thank everyone for their support for the sturgeon program over the years.

Patrick Wilson is the Peacemaking/ Probation Director for the Little River Band of Ottawa Indians. Pat has been in this position for almost 13 years. Patrick has organized and hosted numerous conferences on Peacemaking and its relevance to our culture and our community.

These conferences had interesting presentations from different Tribes and other outside entities that practice Alternative Dispute Resolution. People in the Manistee Community and others from all over the United States have attended his conferences.

Patrick has visited other Tribes and shared with them what he has implemented in our Peacemaking program. He recently received an email from the Ho-Chunk Nation Wa Ehi Hoci, Judiciary Branch to "let you know we are using your model for our Peacemaker's project and to thank you for being a beacon for others." They have requested additional information from him to develop job descriptions, budget allocations, and what kinds of activities they may provide.

Timothy Connors, a Michigan State Circuit Court judge, trained with Patrick in the past and was awarded a grant for the first State court to have its own Peacemaking department.

Patrick is not sponsoring the conferences anymore but is holding Peacemaking trainings for those interested in learning the process. One can find the information and the registration for the training being held on August 24th, 2018 by typing in <http://littlerivermpc.wix.com/peacemaking>

All who are interested are welcome to come.

Individuals born in the month of May are extremely understanding, resolute and enthusiastic. Their physical attractiveness coupled with their mental strength makes them absolutely irresistible. Extremely hardworking and always on the move, these people always keep themselves occupied with something or the other and detest wasting time. As charming as these May-borns are, they always claim the attention of almost everybody around them and their oratory skills make sure that the attention stays. Zealous and energetic, not only do they exhibit a keen interest in arts, music and literature, but they also tend to have an imaginative bent of mind.

Attention Elders:

The weather is getting nicer, it's time to get out and enjoy it!! What better way than come to Manistee to an Elders Meeting and go see the sights!! Elders Meetings are all at the Aki Maadiziwin, start at 12:00 pm. Some months we even play Bingo!!

Notice to all Elders

From the

Public Affairs Office:

Boozhoo,

Now that the Currents Newspaper has a new design we would love to hear from you, your feedback is highly appreciated and will help us to improve our communication. Please feel free to contact the Public Affairs Office with your suggestions, please tell us what you would like to see as we work towards creating pages specifically for our elders.

Hello Elders,

The Elders held their meeting at Aki, on Saturday, April 7, 2018. It was great to see old pals and new people. The Elders committee opened the meeting, went through the Agenda items, and then closed the meeting. We had as usual a wonderful lunch provided by Elders Coordinator, Noelle Cross.

We then played Bingo. There were a variety of prizes donated by the Elders Committee and LRCR. Good Old Me, was the caller, probably not the most efficient, but it didn't matter to the Elders. Half way through Jamie took over and I ran these little legs off when someone called Bingo to verify their cards. I was exhausted by end of Bingo, good exercise for me. Everyone had smiles on their faces and truly enjoyed the day. Come on and join us, meet people, converse with people and sit back and enjoy a good lunch. Good way to find out what is going on, to ask questions and just listen.

Chuck Fisher, from the Warriors Society, announced that he and Virgil Johnson had License Plates to sell, with our Tribal Logo on them. They look super and will look even better on the front of your car. Have a Super rest of the month.

Three Sisters Legend

A long time ago 3 sisters lived together in a field. The sisters were very different in size, shape and appearance. The youngest wore velvet green with beautiful ribbons. She was only able to crawl but with the help of her two older sisters she was able to stand up. The second sister wore bright yellow and loved to run across the fields when the sun was shining. The third sister had silky hair and wore a green shawl. She stood very tall and straight and always guarded her two younger sisters. As different as these girls were they were very close and knew they could not survive apart. Native legend has it that they were known as the sustainers of life.

One day a little boy came and played in the field. The sisters were intrigued by him as he ran around, jumping and yelling. They watched him all day but as evening came on he wandered off. The sisters wondered where he might have gone. One day later in the summer the youngest girl who couldn't stand up disappeared. The two sisters watched and waited for her but she never returned. They began to mourn the loss of their beloved sister.

Once more the little boy returned to the sister's field. Again the two watched as he played and got reeds from the river's edge. That night the middle sister, the one who wore the bright yellow, disappeared. The oldest sister who stood tall, prayed and prayed that one day her and her sisters would be reunited.

As winter grew closer the oldest sister's hair grew dull and her green shawl began to fade. She loved her sisters and knew her survival depended on her being together with her sisters.

One day late in the fall the boy returned to the field and heard the oldest sister crying. His heart ached because she sounded so sad. He picked her up and carried her to his home. There she found her missing two sisters! Now that they were once again together they were able to sustain each other. Submitted by Marcella Leusby

GROW A "THREE SISTERS" GARDEN: Corn, Beans, & Squash

1. Buy the seeds. Make sure you buy pole beans. You also want to make sure the squash seeds are the trailing variety.
2. When to plant: Best time is when the evening temperature stays above 50 degrees, usually late May or early June.
3. Preparing the garden: Choose area that will get the most daylight, usually 8 hours at least. Work some compost into the soil. First make a mound about 4 feet around and 10-12 inches high. Make 4 holes, about 12 inches apart, plant 4-6 corn kernels in each hole about an inch deep. Cover kernels and water.

Little River Band of Ottawa Indians, a Michigan Tribe, Has Presence at Stanford Powwow

by Levi Rickert / Business, Currents / 20 May 2018

STANFORD, Calif. — Getting the word out about a product can be tricky at times. This is particularly true when a product is an ingredient used within food recipes. So, when an indigenous chef incorporated an ingredient owned by a company belonging to the Little River Band of Ottawa Indians into her recipes, the tribe's presence extended from all the way from Michigan to California.

Regardless of how it works is fine by the tribe, based in Manistee, Michigan. The tribe owns and operates Advanced Protein Solutions (APS), which owns intellectual property formulations that add to the nutritious value of ground meat because they are packed with vitamins and antioxidants. To help move the intellectual property formulation, APS representatives solicited the help of indigenous chef, Crystal Wahpepah (Kickapoo), who was willing to test the meat with the APS formulation in it. After her initial tests working with her recipes, Wahpepah integrated the formulated ground bison meat into her proprietary Kickapoo buffalo chili and blue corn tacos, which are made with ground beef.

Indigenous chef Crystal Wahpepah stirs Kickapoo buffalo chili which included APS formulation with some extra loving care.

Wahpepah owns Wahpepah's Kitchen and is a highly respected indigenous chef, who resides in the San Francisco Bay Area. As a former contestant on the Food Network's "Chopped" series, Wahpepah has been building a name for herself as she promotes indigenous foods. She is featured in the 2016 edition of "Native American Almanac: More than 50,000 Years of the Cultures and Histories of Indigenous Peoples."

Chefs, especially those working with indigenous foods, are particular with the what raw foods and ingredients go into their recipes. Wahpepah liked the results of her tests with the APS' all-natural formulations in ground meat.

"Using the meat formulations made a huge difference in my recipes. The taste was unbelievably awesome. The texture was far better than my other ground bison. The meat tastes very clean and natural the way ground meat should taste," says Wahpepah.

The Kickapoo buffalo chili was a featured menu item at the Wahpepah's Kitchen booth at the 47th Annual Stanford Powwow, which attracted some 25,000 people over Mother's Day weekend. Wahpepah was more than satisfied with the sales results and comments coming from her customers over the powwow weekend where her blue corn tacos and Kickapoo buffalo chili sold out. She is excited about using meat with APS' all-natural formulation. "My customers noticed a huge difference in my chili, blue corn tacos with the all-natural formulation. I always have people coming back for seconds and even third helpings. This time I had a huge response on my Kickapoo buffalo chili," reports Wahpepah. "So many made their way back to our food tent to tell me how awesome my food was and liked that I use healthy ingredients." After the success at the Stanford Powwow, Wahpepah and APS representatives discussed ways to work together in a mutually beneficial capacity to increase awareness about the health benefits of using APS formulations.

"Our relationship with Crystal Wahpepah, a highly respected indigenous chef, is very important to us as we continue to gain strategic alliances in Indian Country and the rest of the nation to provide healthier beef, bison, and other all natural protein formulations to the mass market" says Garrick Opie, Managing Director of Advanced Protein Solutions, based in Traverse City, Michigan. As an indigenous chef, the holistic approach to cooking healthy foods is essential to Wahpepah and she looks forward to working more closely with the Little River Band's tribal business enterprise.

"I am honored and humbled to be working with the Little River Band of Ottawa's tribal business. As Indigenous chef and business owner, this something vital ground breaking important to our Native communities. And the most important thing is we are creating indigenous menu items to eat healthy and be healthy. It starts by us coming together as indigenous people working together so excited to see the outcome of this amazing formulation."

The Little River Band of Ottawa Indians is a federally recognized tribe that owns and operates the Little River Casino Resort, located in Manistee, Michigan. In addition, to APS the tribe through its Economic Development Council owns other tribal business enterprises. One of the business tribal enterprises is AYAA, LLC that operates APS and InTerra Nutraceuticals.

Veronica Shawnego kept the long lines moving with great service.

The Warriors Society has received approval to add a second Memorial stone to the first one that is in front of the Casino. If you have not been to the Little River Casino Resort, we have in front of the Casino a huge Memorial stone that was dedicated to our Tribal Warriors. This stone has the name of the Warrior and his/her branch of service. If a Warrior passes away a feather is put at the end of his/her name to honor him/her. It is very impressive to look at and admire. At this time there is no more space to add more names; both sides are filled. The Warriors Society has decided to add another stone, but not as big, next to the large one, with another to follow on the other side as the second stone gets filled.
