Section 3. Procedure

- 3-1. Provisional Determination. Prior to issuing a citation, the Gaming Commission shall provide notice of a provisional determination including the alleged violation and a summary of the information considered in making the determination.
- 3-2. Notice. The gaming enterprise shall receive the provisional determination notice fourteen (14) calendar days prior to a final decision. During this notice period, the gaming enterprise may provide additional information for consideration.
- 3-3. Final Decision. After the conclusion of the notice provisional determination period, the Gaming Commission shall issue a final decision within fourteen (14) calendar days. The final decision may include alternate remedies to paying the citation such as a warning, probationary period, and/or corrective actions.

Section 4. Appeal

- 4-1. Appeals to the Gaming Commission. Citation Determinations that impose a citation may be reviewed on appeal by the Gaming Commission. If the gaming enterprise seeks an administrative review of a citation, they shall initiate the process in writing by titling the submission “Request for Administrative Review”. The submission must be delivered to the Gaming Commission within fourteen (14) calendar days of the issuance of the final decision. The submission shall identify the citation and include in the submission any information supplied in response to the original decision. The Gaming Commission shall review the Request for Administrative Review and issue a written ruling in response. The Gaming Commission in its sole discretion may provide the gaming enterprise an opportunity to be heard on the issues involved in the matter. The Gaming Commission shall render a written decision within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the Request for Administrative Review or at the close of a hearing, if any, on the matter.

- 4-2 Appeals to the Tribal Court. The gaming enterprise may seek judicial review in Tribal Court of any citation determination administrative review.
- 4-3. Standard of Review. In all appeals before the Tribal Court, there shall be deference given by the Tribal Court to the determination of the Gaming Commission as the agency charged with the responsibility for interpreting its own regulations. The Tribal Court review of Gaming Commission citation determinations is limited to interpretation and application of law or regulation. The decision of the Tribal Court shall be final.
